

Title: Finding Our Place in the Story of Scripture

“If our lives are to be shaped and formed by Scripture, we need to know the biblical story well, to feel it in our bones. Further, we must also know our own place within it--where we are in the story, and how we live it out in our lives.” - Craig G. Bartholomew and Michel W. Goheen

We all have favorite verses and stories in the Bible. But, have you ever considered how all those verses and stories hang together as one grand narrative? What is our place within this great narrative or story? Join Mother Meghan as we explore the Bible as one whole, coherent drama. Together we will discover the true story of the whole world in which we are called to live our lives.
